

The Brooklyn Speedway — from hot-rod venue to soccer stadium.

SPEEDWAY TURNS SOCCER COMPLEX

The Brooklyn Speedway, 18 km from the heart of Melbourne, is being developed as a soccer complex.

The site has been bought by interests associated with former Hakoah (Vic), George Cross and Adelaide City player Sam Tarascio.

The ground will be ready for the 1981 season and is available for lease.

It is situated between Brooklyn and Laverton, on the Princes Highway, opposite the Brooklyn drive-in theatre and within easy access of St. Albans, Altona, Footscray, Sunshine and Werribee — all strong soccer centres.

Clubs interested in leasing the ground should contact B.M. Griffiths and Co. Ltd., 350 King Street, Melbourne (03) 329 8011.

The existing speedtrack will be retained and extended to a quarter-mile race track. This extension will allow the development of a full international size soccer ground.

The site already has advantages over many existing soccer grounds, being completely fenced with a spectator embankment for proper viewing and a spectator barrier.

Electrical wiring and light poles around the perimeter make night soccer a possibility simply by attaching the correct reflectors.

A Press box also exists and is situated 20 ft. above the playing field for overall vision. It is equipped with telephones and a public address system.

Sam Tarascio has developed on the same site, a $700,000 squash and restaurant complex, comprising eight glass back courts and a licenced restaurant seating 130 people.

This complex will be extended to also include a gymnasium, sauna and spa bath and would be of benefit to the tenant clubs if a change in training is required or if wet weather does not permit outdoor training.

The tenant clubs will be granted full usage rights to the ground, including catering and parking rights during the soccer season.

One of the main advantages is that being a private development the ground is not subject to the usual restrictions and lengthy red tape negotiations of the public or council-owned grounds.

It will be possible for the right clubs to co-operate with the developers and gradually establish both social and playing facilities with the assurance of permanent tenure and a co-operative and flexible landlord.

The venue has the potential eventually to be the equal of grounds like Middle Park stadium.

Macari for Tassie Tigers?

CONTINUING OUR SERIES ON CANDIDATES FOR THE ENLARGED 1981 PHILIPS LEAGUE

By LAURIE SCHWAB and DAVID MARTIN

Watch out for the Tassie Tigers. That's the name of the new club being formed for possible entry to the Philips League next year.

Eight men — four of them from Tasmanian champion club Rapid West Point — are forming the new club.

Ken Morton, player-coach of Rapid, is to be coach of the Tigers.

Formerly with Manchester United, Morton believes that only four or five top players would have to be imported from overseas or interstate.

He already has asked former Scottish international Lou Macari of Manchester United to join the Tigers.

Club organisers believe there are enough talented players in Tasmania to make up the rest of the proposed, PSL team.

The Tigers hope to attract a major sponsor who would provide about $250,000 which would help pay the transfer fees.

Tasmanian players who would be targets of the Tigers are: Peter Willis (ex-Newcastle KB, now Rapid), Peter Saville (Launceston Juventus), Eric Young (Hobart Juventus), Peter Brine (ex-Middlesborough, now Hobart Juventus), Brian Davidson (ex-Essenand Croatia, now Croatia Glenorchy), Steve Darby (Devonport) and Tony Dickinson and Ian Parker (both Brighton ICL).

The men behind the Tigers have lodged a preliminary membership application with the ASF and a full submission will be available in September.

Home ground would be South Hobart, the ground used by Rapid.

The ground management committee has pledged to improve the pitch, extend the stands to cover about 4000 spectators, and provide a Press box.

The eight men behind the new club are:

ROY STONEMAN, secretary-manager of Rapid and treasurer of the South Hobart ground management committee (SHGMC).

GABRIEL HAROS, State parliamentarian and president of the SHGMC.

RON HURLEY, casino manager of the West Point Casino complex and president of Olympia;

REG TOLPUTT, insurance consultant, member of the Tasmanian Soccer Association (TSA) and Tasmanian Soccer Federation (TSF).

IAN HEAZLETT, wool inspector, secretary of the SHGMC.

BRUNO SENGIA, vehicle inspector, Rapid committeeman and member of the SHGMC.

DAVID COOK, proprietor of the Wheatseaf Hotel and vice-president of Rapid.

They are seeking a minimum of 100 foundation members who would pay $250 each, giving a total of $25,000. Thirty already have pledged membership.

The committee has letters from television station TVT8, the ABC and newspapers and radio stations promising support for the PSL team.

Organisers believe therefore that they could draw at least 3000 to every home match.

Lou Macari of Manchester United — he has been asked to join the Tassie Tigers if they get into the PSL.

Petty cash planning a big mistake

If Wollongong City imagines it can run a successful team in the PSL on a total budget of $130,000 next season, officials are out of their minds or living in the land of the fairies.

Going by editor Laurie Schwab's story about the 'Gong last week, the officials hope to spend $70,000 on players, with the other $60,000 spent on wages.

I can only say to them good luck and ask them to divulge their budget secrets to the other teams in the PSL that no doubt would be only too willing to share them.

Before I go any further, I must add that I think the idea of having a Wollongong team in the PSL is a good one.

But I must also add that the PSL is no penny ante set up and it takes big money to exist in such company.

And if you don't believe it,

ask any of the teams in the competition at present.

Wollongong is basing much of its PSL plans on that of Newcastle United — an area similar to Wollongong.

What must be noted of course is that at present Newcastle has a financial problem — and a big one at that.

There are a number of things I hope the Wollongong people have taken into consideration in their press for PSL status.

TOM ANDERSON

First, the standard of play in the PSL is high and for $70,000 there's no way 11 good players can be bought on the local market.

I have seen it reported that the Wollongong officials hope that local expatriate players like Paul Kay, Larry Gaffney and Neil Williams to name a few, will return and play for the new club.

I hope they are not forgetting that if this is so, their present clubs will want hefty transfer fees for these players.

Also, there is a rule in the game that only three overseas players can be signed by a club, and this limits overseas recruitment.

And, if the ASF gives special dispensation to Wollongong to sign more than three, mayhem could break loose.

There are many other clubs, both in and out of the PSL, which without doubt could also present a case for special dispensation to sign more than three overseas players.

Surely rules are made to cover all, whoever they may be or whatever situation may exist.

It also must be taken into consideration that if Wollongong is not able to get together a top side and it suffers a few hiccups, this will affect home gates and interest in the area will drop.

This has been proved time and again on the South Coast during the old South Coast United days and with other set ups in recent years.

When this happens sponsors leave the ship, money becomes tight and a situation usually occurs that makes it difficult to keep going.

It may be OK to play short-term but I only hope that the Wollongong officials have made plans on a long-term basis and for at least three years.

It would be a tragedy for not only Wollongong but for football in general, if they bit off something they later found they could not chew.

As I said previously, the PSL is a tough school and the weak are given no favours and quickly trampled.

There is no finer administered club and no club that has captured the imagination of the local fans more than Newcastle KB United.

But without a social club to back them, they have struggled and are finding the going hard this year.

Sure Wollongong is going to be backed by the Wollongong Leagues Club to the tune of $25,000 a year — but for how long?

What happens when or if a Wollongong team plays in the proposed Second Division of the Sydney Rugby League competition either this year or next?

It has also been suggested that the population of the Wollongong area is more than enough to support a flourishing PSL team.

This is indeed so, but to be successful it takes a great deal of money to run a football team — not only to start but to keep going, year after year.

I only hope that this money will be forthcoming for Wollongong year after year and that its administrators fully realise what it is taking on.

I sincerely hope the Wollongong project succeeds for it is an area where soccer could really do something.

But the initial period is going to be very hard and it will really test the Norman Gunston edge of "Wollongong the Brave".

Back to Footscray but future bleak

Footscray J.U.S.T. is almost certain to return to Western Oval for a match on August 17 and probably two matches in September.

But Footscray Council is no closer to finding a permanent home ground for J.U.S.T.

The club was forced off Western Oval earlier this year despite having come to an agreement with the ground's main occupant, Footscray Football Club, for joint tenancy J.U.S.T. was to pay the football club at least $25,000 for the privilege.

But then the Victorian Football League (VFL) ruled that VFL grounds must be available to Australian Rules Football at all times and could not be shared with other codes.

The VFL threatened no longer to recognise Western Oval as a VFL ground if the council permitted J.U.S.T. to continue playing there.

So the council "recommended" to J.U.S.T. that it leave the ground, and pledged to try to find a permanent home for the club within the Footscray municipality.

Since then, J.U.S.T. has been playing at Olympic

Park and Middle Park. The confusion has contributed to its declining crowds. Healthy attendances at the two games J.U.S.T. played at Western Oval indicated that support would remain strong at that venue.

Footscray Football Club plays its last home game of 1980 at Western Oval on August 16.

Council ALP caucus chairman Cr Fred Maddern has spoken with Footscray FC and VFL officials about J.U.S.T. playing a game there on August 17 and no objections have been raised so far.

Cr. Maddern said J.U.S.T. would be able to recover some of the financial losses it has sustained this year if it played a few games at Western Oval, where costs are much lower than at Olympic Park.

But as things stand, it is unlikely that J.U.S.T. will get a permanent home in Footscray.

A suggested area behind the Footscray Institute of Technology is apparently public open space and therefore cannot be fenced.

A fenced ground, with embankments, stand and pavilion would cost at least $750,000.

Council hopes that there will be a new spirit of co-operation between the VFL and the Victorian Football Association (VFA).

Footscray could then share Western Oval with Yarraville VFA club, and J.U.S.T. could play at the Yarraville ground.

Cavallari flies in International

Cavallari, of Italian Third Division club Chieri, has joined Juventus in the Victorian State League. He previously played for Novara in the Italian B Division.

Picture by LES SHORROCK.

Adelaide City's Kiwi international Glen Dodds (right) confronts Gary Cole of Heidelberg.

Be glad they're here!

I find it amazing that people are worried about the Australian based Kiwi internationals gaining World Cup advantage for their country by "spying" on our Socceros.

It's said that New Zealanders Glen Dodds (Adelaide City), Roy Drinkwater (Newcastle), Joan Verweij (Mark Naughton) (Brisbane Lions), Richard Wilson and Duncan Cole (Canberra) will pass Australia's secrets on to the New Zealand coach who will use those secrets to out us from the World Cup next year.

What a laugh! The worriers should be happy that these star New Zealanders are playing here in Australia where WE can keep an eye on THEM.

But I wonder what has been done at top level to study the likes of Dodds, Wilson, Verweij and Co.

Have the people who matter done anything to pinpoint the strengths and weaknesses of the expatriate Kiwis?

One who is worth studying closely is Glen Dodds.

Apart from being impressed by his incredible speed I did not think when he first came to Adelaide City that he would do better than second grade.

Yet Dodds has matured so much as a player that he now is not only a top footballer at this club but also one of the best in the league.

I wonder whether our national team bosses are really concerned with Dodds' development and stature or whether they still see him as Mr. Ordinary.

He will take to the New Zealand team all that he has learned here and will thus play an important role in the World Cup games.

By studying Dodds, Wilson, Cole and the rest, someone should be able to produce detailed dossiers which will be extremely useful in the World Cup campaign.

The quicker it is done, the better. And let's not look to amateurs to do it.

While I was impressed by the performance of Green Gully Ajax on the field, I was even more impressed by its professionalism in the field.

Ajax was in Adelaide recently to meet Adelaide City in the Philips Cup and while City's victory was expected, Ajax's stature as a potential Adelaide team was a surprise.

They came in club jumpers, the players were extremely well behaved, they even brought their own supporters from Melbourne.

And knowing the club's set-up in suburban St. Albans, I confidently predict that Ajax will grow up into a very big club indeed, for it has laid solid foundations with an excellent ground and social club.

Compare Ajax with clubs that were born more than 20 years ago. Many of those still have nothing and never will have.

Many are doomed to struggle until they die because they did not have the foresight to plan for the future.

Ajax is one of the new breed of progressive clubs which will be marching always towards new horizons.

The way the Philips League is going, any one of six clubs can become champion.

It appeared early in the year that Heidelberg would walk in, but that has changed.

Heidelberg still has a chance of course, but it has lost a little ground to Sydney City which maintains the incredible consistency it has shown for about six years now.

South Melbourne Hellas also has been consistent, but like Heidelberg which has lost Jimmy Rooney temporarily, Hellas has felt the loss of injured Alan Davidson.

The one club no-one has considered in the title race is Brisbane Lions. Like Sydney City, the Lions have been very consistent this year and extremely hard to beat because of the Jim Hermiston-Col Bennett defensive combination.

Coach Matt Carson deserves great praise for what he has been able to do with a team which, in the main, comprises average players.

At the other end of the table, the relegation battle is just as interesting.

Blacktown and St. George have the greatest worries, while APIA, Footscray, and Brisbane City appear far enough ahead to escape relegation.

For my money, Brisbane City never was a relegation candidate, even during its worst period. City always was too good a team to be struggling near the bottom. Its time had to come — and it came spectacularly against Heidelberg.

Rovers toast to the future

Albion Rovers last week became the first Victorian soccer club to be granted a full licence by the Liquor Control Commission.

Rovers, the club of former Socceroo Jimmy Mackay, will play in the Victorian First Division.

It was relegated last year after two seasons in the State League.

Rovers will trade at their Selwyn Park ground every night from 4 pm to 10 pm and for limited hours on Sundays.

The only conditions of the licence are that club membership be limited to 188 due to the size of the clubrooms, and that no packaged beer be sold on match days.

Nominee is club vice-president Dave Berry JP, a former mayor of Sunshine.

Like many other clubs, Albion Rovers have for eight years had what is popularly known as a "sportsmen's licence," which is a permit to bring liquor into the clubrooms but not to sell it.

By LAURIE SCHWAB

The full licence granted to Albion Rovers costs 8% of gross liquor sales for the year.

It took Albion Rovers four and a half years to get the licence.

First the club needed a Town Planning Permit but local residents objected and the objections had to be heard by the Town Planning Board, which finally dismissed them.

Rovers' president Russell Wilson was elated at the news that the licence finally had been granted.

He said the licensed clubrooms would put Rovers on a firm financial footing.

Dave Berry said the club hoped the top level of soccer — perhaps the Phillips League eventually.

He said there was still a chance that State League club Sunshine City and Albion Rovers would amalgamate.

The amalgamation talks were halted while Albion made its bid for a licence but there are still members of both clubs who favor the link-up.

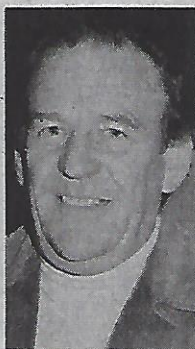

The clubs are less than a kilometre apart.

Albion Rovers, formed in 1963, is led by Russell Wilson, Dave Berry, treasurer Peter Clabby, secretary Alex McArthur, senior chairman Bill Mizzi and junior chairman Jim Melrose.

Coach is Bill McArthur (ex-Croatia) and top players include Bill McIntyre (ex-Hellas, Croatia, Macedonia) Hugh Howe (ex-Sunshine), Bobby Nisbet, Mike D'Sylva and Tony Gatt.

I AIM TO BE BEST IN THE LAND

I've really been lucky so far in my career because I've trained under some of the best coaches in Australia.

Rale Rasic is one of the best, probably the best I've trained under, but Les Scheinflug also is a top coach.

And I can't go past Mike Johnson as an important influence early in my career.

I started playing when I was eight with Dundas United and I stayed with them until I was 15 and when I joined Pan Hellenic in the Sydney third grade.

When travelling became a problem I joined Yugal until I was 17½ when Mike Johnson asked me to join St George.

Actually my father paid my transfer fee, so that shows how keen he was for me to improve and he has been another major influence upon my success so far.

At St George I played under Ross Warren in the third grade side for a full season before breaking into the first team.

There were a lot of people at St George who really showed interest in me, people like John Warren, Manfred Schaefer and Mike Johnson.

Mike was important to me when I was as young as 13 because at that age it gave me tremendous confidence to know that a first grade coach thought I could make it to the top.

It was a big thrill for me to play alongside the top players at St George and Doug Utesenovic helped me with understanding about contracts as well as working out the flaws in my game.

When I was 21 I joined Rale Rasic at Marconi and I have not looked back since.

My first year at Marconi started well and after 10 games I had scored 10 goals.

But injuries let me down and I sat out most of the second half of the season watching us throw away a six-point lead that we established at the top of the table by the half-way mark.

It was probably my biggest disappointment, just watching from the sideline while things went wrong for us.

But when you consider that I gained my first full international cap for Australia when I was only 19 I can't really complain.

Playing for my country means a great deal to me and I consider it an honour to go out there with an Australian strip on.

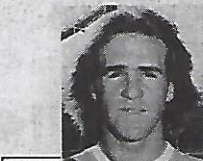

Playing at national level is probably every player's dream and I now strive to become a regular in the first eleven.

If you don't aim for the top you remain an average player and I always strive to be the best player in the land.

You need that goal to push you along and give you the incentive to achieve your true potential.

Playing for Australia under Rudi Gutendorf is a lot different than it was under Brian Green and Jim Shoulder.

Rudi has instilled a much more positive

Mark Jankovics

On the Ball

The Player's Viewpoint

cause I was able to get into scoring positions.

Money and major sponsorship remains the biggest drawback toward injecting much needed professionalism into all areas of our game-playing standards, coaching, administration and the media.

I believe that TV coverage is the key which could unlock major sponsorship and give us the financial injection we need.

With TV exposure we could lure major sponsors to get behind soccer and allow us to improve in many ways.

Our administrators do the best they can given that few of them are full-timers. With healthy sponsorship clubs could improve facilities and playing standards with better squads and this would draw the crowds.

The standard of coaching is especially high in the PSL with five or six excellent coaches and others who are quite competent.

As for the media, I really haven't any complaints and I think that it is fair on the whole.

Players are no different to anyone else in that they resent getting rubbished but it is a fact of your soccer life that you can be down one week, and up the next.

The way to handle the media is just to take the good with the bad but often a player knows that he has played poorly yet he still gets annoyed when he reads it in the Press.

At Marconi we are just starting to get out of a slump which is not unusual for a team that has been at the top for so long.

You see it happen in Europe all the time when a top team can go no further and hits a bad spot.

I think that part of our slump came about probably due to our complacency, but the main factor was the many players from Marconi representing Australia.

When you look back you will see that we really haven't had a break from soccer for two years and it starts to take its toll because it's so hard to stay mentally alert.

During that time however we have gained experience and now we are working up gradually.

Our game against J.U.S.T. two weeks ago was brilliant and in the first half we played as well as I've seen Marconi play.

I know that there are not many games left but I firmly believe that we will give the title a big shake.

We have a really strong squad and when we put it together we will steamroll anyone.

As for my future, I strive to be the best in whatever I do and I aim to get in among the goals for Australia and to do well in Spain.

It's too far away for me to consider coaching but I see it as a great challenge and a way in which I could channel back the many things that soccer has given me.

Semis on August 31

Heidelberg and Marconi will be the home teams in the semi-finals of the Philips Cup on August 31.

The home teams were drawn out of a hat but the pairings are geographical. Heidelberg meets Adelaide City and Marconi clashes with Brisbane Lions.

CHALDI AXED

Gerry Chaldi will be back in Sydney in three weeks after having parted company with West Adelaide at the weekend.

West Adelaide sacked Chaldi and paid out his contract until the end of the year because the team has been doing badly and is in danger of relegation.

Chaldi, who coached Hakoah (Sydney City) to the PSL championship in 1977, is known to be disappointed that some of the players he recruited this year did not live up to expectations.

West Adelaide chairman John Rex said: "We have no complaint about Gerry. His previous record reflects his ability but we felt a parting of the ways would be best for both parties and we wish him well."

Chaldi tried to build a new team this year but West Adelaide was unable to make up for the loss of Con Kambas, Barry Reynolds, David Jones, and Peter Boyle.

Former West Adelaide captain Neil McCachey will help with physical training and captain Ian McGregor and goalkeeper Martyn Crook will be in charge on match days.

Team selection will be shared by a panel of players.

A new coach will not be named until the end of the year.

J.U.S.T.'s Jim O'Reilly (front) beats Bill Pirie of APIA in an aerial duel.

Heidelberg, Marconi in vital matches

The McKendry machine gets the chance again to show off the effects of its overhaul by taking both points against Canberra at Olympic Park this Saturday.

If Arthur McMillan and Jim Tansey show their ability to charge upfield in support of their front runners, Gary Cole and Jamie Paton could hit the scoring trail, again to the disappointment of Canberra's New Zealand international keeper Richard Wilson.

But Cole and Paton will have to be sharp to cope with the close attention of Roy Stark and perhaps Mike Milovanovic.

Sebastian Giampaolo and Walter Valeri represent the biggest threat to Heidelberg but they will find out what it is like to be quickly closed down and delayed and well marked off the ball.

However Giampaolo has a lightning fast burst of speed and Heidelberg sweeper John Yzendoorn will have to give good cover to his fellow defenders, especially if the Bergers are caught forward as Canberra breaks.

But it looks like the Senators can expect little joy from their trip south and could return to Australia's parliamentary capital without a vote of confidence from the many Heidelberg fans expected to watch this outstanding clash.

Hellas resumes its championship bid against Brisbane City 7-0 conqueror of Heidelberg two weeks ago.

In that memorable drubbing City's winger Joe Palinkas repaid his $17,500 transfer bid in full with a little left over and Palinkas can enhance City's investment by calling on his knowledge of the Middle Park turf with another fine display.

Had Alan Davidson been fit Palinkas would have been in for a dismal afternoon but the re-organised Hellas defence may not be able to cope with the bursts upfield by the former J.U.S.T. player.

However, the visitors from Brisbane look incapable of taming Hellas's attacking prowess and Branko Buljevic and Alan Evans should put paid to City's hopes of scoring another upset win against a top four side.

The Strikers are a classy side and they also have the consistency that few top clubs in the land are capable of producing and they should take both points from this encounter with consummate ease.

Ken Boden and Mark Trenter can thrive upon the service of their talented midfielders and compound Blacktown's relegation worries.

The battle for the top four is on in earnest when Marconi, which meets Sydney City in a postponed game tonight (Wednesday) tackles Adelaide City at Marconi Stadium on Sunday. The renewed good form of Les Scheinberg's side should see the home team come out on top against the well-organised Adelaide City.

City coach Rale Rasic would get great satisfaction from seeing his team defeat his former disciples, but Rasic can expect little joy from a Marconi outfit starting to blend together in the inter-passing fashion of old.

PSL to pay the Bergers' wages

Heidelberg United flies to Lions Stadium on the outskirts of Brisbane next week.

The Bergers will clash with Lions at 3 pm on Wednesday, 13 August, a public holiday in Queensland due to the Brisbane Show.

The PSL will compensate Heidelberg's players for time lost from work.

Apparently the league regularly compensates clubs whose players lose a day's pay due to travel difficulties or kick-off times, the latter being the main reason for compensation in this coming clash with Lions.

What a pleasant thought for those Heidelberg players who don't work!

Anyway, the Bergers could find themselves working hard in their efforts to overcome the stain remaining from their last trip north when Brisbane City humbled them 7-0 and raised some serious doubts about Heidelberg's consistency.

It is unlikely that Jim Rooney will be fit enough to return for this game but Jim Campbell may be fully fit and ready to fire. Otherwise the visitors from the deep south will struggle to break through the defensive curtain represented by Jim Hermiston and Col Bennett.

The Bergers hope elusive Ron Millman will not turn on a performance like that of Brisbane City star Joe Palinkas who tore the heart out of the Heidelberg defence two weeks ago.

DALMATINAC 0
ADELAIDE CITY 1

After extra time.
Scorer: Melta 100th.
Ground: Dalmatinac Park, Perth.
Crowd: About 2000.
Referee: Barry Harwood 8.

ADALMATINAC: Marshall 7 — Dods 8, Parin 7, Jones 9, B. Nyakohus 8, Marochi 6 (Russell 7, 70th), Northcote 6, J. Nyakohus 6, Muniz 7 — Barnes 7, Mitchell 6 (Melta 9, 55th).

Spearhead Dalmatinac's courageous Philips Cup campaign came to an end in the first period of extra time when Adelaide City snatched a 1-0 victory at Dalmatinac Park in Perth.

In defeat Dalmatinac demonstrated a tenacity of purpose that left the more accomplished Adelaide City players grateful of victory no matter how slim.

Unfortunately the soccer public in Perth let the code down when little more than 2000 paid to watch one of the highlights of the local season.

There can be no excuses for the paltry turn-out, with the conditions ideal for soccer.

The WA Federation had cancelled D'Orsonga Cup matches scheduled for the day to give the game every chance of attracting a big crowd.

This was the opportunity for WA to impress the Philips League that this State had a right to entry and would be able to support a team in the national competition.

Dalmatinac and Kingsway Olympic beforehand have done their job on the field of play to suggest that no team from WA would suffer in competition.

Dalmatinac had every chance of moving through to the semi-final where its opponents would have been Heidelberg.

After the match Adelaide City coach Rale Rasic echoed the sentiments of his players when he complimented Dalmatinac on its performance.

"Dalmatinac gave us a hard fight and it was a close shave," said Rasic.

In the first half, when Dalmatinac looked particularly dangerous, two gilt-edged chances fell to its attack.

The first came in the 14th minute when a perfect cross from winger Salko Glavovic found Vuk Popovic completely unmarked.

But from point-blank range he failed to connect properly with a header which flew wide of the goalmouth.

Then, in the 27th minute, Popovic sent over a low cross that beat goalkeeper Peter Marshall and the ball fell to Ian Russell.

Russell, who was one of Dalmatinac's best players, somehow managed to miss the open goal that yawned in front of him.

Marshall was called on to make three great saves in this half.

But it was by no means one-way traffic and Adelaide City was clearly the superior side in technique and dominated the midfield with its skills.

Time and again it forced corners.

But if there was any weakness in City's make-up it was in its finishing, with forwards wasting the advantages made for them.

In the second half Adelaide City took total control but the Dalmatinac defence stood firm under extreme pressure.

It is not surprising that the best players for Dalmatinac were Mark O'Keefe, Stephen Snell, Robin Witschge and Neil Hardy — all defenders.

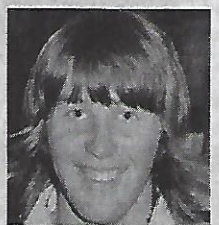

None shone brighter for City than former WA and Treloare player David Jones, with Buggy Nyakohus and Glen Dods providing sure support.

Dalmatinac had achieved a victory of sorts by taking the visitors to extra time.

But it came as no surprise when Adelaide City scored the winning goal in the 10th minute of extra time.

With Dalmatinac visibly tiring, a superb midfield move ended with a well-placed through ball to Sergio Melta who raced through unopposed to score past the helpless Tony Witschge in goal.

Heidelberg for the Philips Cup semi-final at Canberra and facing the possibility of a disastrous second half of the season after its third consecutive defeat.

Heidelberg deserved its semi-final berth for one simple reason. It took its chances.

It scored in the final minute of each half.

Canberra must now do the near impossible and defeat Heidelberg on Saturday in Melbourne. It has to lift itself off the floor.

Last weekend's crowd was the poorest of the season and as the club was donating handsomely to a most worthy charity, Canberra's Hartley House School for Handicapped Children, the Philips Cup quarter final game would have cost Canberra handsomely.

Some say several thousand dollars.

But listen to Heidelberg's coach Len McKendry: "We had to put last weekend's 7-0 drubbing by Brisbane City behind us."

"We did just that."

"All week we had practised to tighten our defence and I thought if we could hold Canberra in the first 15 minutes or so, we could win."

Canberra had the chances to win the game in that initial spell.

The game was but minutes old when Tony Brennan back-headed brilliantly to John O'Shea with O'Shea a mere five metres from the goal-line.

It was a gilt-edged chance but Canberra's O'Shea blasted over the bar.

Ten minutes later, Terry Byrne missed another sitter.

He ran brilliantly after collecting a long ball and finally left himself with only teenage goalkeeper Jeff Oliver — playing his first full match — to beat.

Byrne should have put it away but allowed Oliver to dive and tip the shot around the post.

Contrast that with Heidelberg's final goal just 60 seconds from the final whistle.

Diminutive Jamie Paton also collected a clearance on the half-way line.

He, too, made ground quickly and well.

But he didn't miff the chance. Wilson, like Oliver, came out quickly to narrow the angle but Paton calmly fired the ball wide of Wilson and into the net.

But Canberra was unlucky.

Apart from missed chances, Terry Byrne's second half header rapped the upright so quickly Oliver had not even moved off the spot.

And when Brennan beat him with a ground shot, veteran defender and skipper Pat Bannon was on hand to clear off the goal-line.

Heidelberg's vital first goal came right on the half-time whistle.

Wilson allowed Theo Salemidis to go up unchallenged for a high cross and the youngster obligingly headed the ball into the net.

Heidelberg's goalkeeping striker Gary Cole was played out of the game and top marks for this can go to Mike Milovanovic and John O'Shea.

Again, all three O'Shea brothers were used by Canberra's coach, John Brown, but for the most time Isaac Farrell had a shocker and was replaced by Harry Williams for the second half.

Williams had a solid game in his PSL return after an absence of six

Millman hits City again

BRISBANE LIONS 2
SYDNEY CITY 1

Goals: Hermiston, pen., 50th, Millman 67th (BL), Bruce 88th (SC).
Ground — Lions Stadium.
Weather: Fine.
Crowd abt. 1800.
Referee — Ken Allen 6.

BRISBANE LIONS — Scanlon 8, Ontong 9, Bennett 7, Hermiston 9, Niven 8, Hogg 8, Lindsay 7, McNaughton 6, Millman 8, Hughes 6, Verweij 7.

SYDNEY CITY — Clarke 8, Mullen 9, O'Connor 8, Spanos 6 (Thomas 58th) Bruce 8, Soussan 6 (H. Sulvan), Barnes 6, Watson 8, Smith 6, Boden 7.

Brisbane Lions are aiming to maintain Queensland's proud record in the Philips Cup after a gutsy performance to beat Sydney City 2-1 and reach the semi-finals.

At the same time the victory represents almost a clean sweep over Sydney City this season, as Lions won 2-0 at home in the first round of the League, while last Sunday week's second-round clash in Sydney produced a 1-1 draw.

And the player who has proved to be just as much a thorn in Sydney City's side as anybody, is Lions' willing striker Ron Millman, who scored in each of those three matches.

Lions now have a chance of trying to emulate the feats of local rival Brisbane City which captured the Cup in the first two seasons of the league.

The cup has been an unhappy competition for Sydney City, as it has failed to get past the semi-finals in every season, even though it has dominated the championships and top four series.

One reflection of Sydney City really should have broken the jinx and led comfortably in this match, considering the domination it enjoyed in most departments.

Tony Scanlon's goal under almost constant siege in the first 45 minutes, but despite Sydney City's attractive football and hard work, it had nothing to show for it, except perhaps a big psychological advantage at half-time.

As Lions at this stage had only two men up front, Sydney City was able to play with three at the back and Kevin Mullen, the team's skipper in this match, and not anywhere near as vocal as usual, virtually had a free hand all over the park.

But he was particularly menacing with his right-wing overlapping and twice he almost created a goal. Scanlon grabbed one of the curling crosses and came close to rolling into the net as he plucked the ball down.

On another occasion, several shots rained in the goalmouth before Pat Ontong cleared off the line.

Jim Hermiston also halted one shot right on the goal-line and provided evidence again why he and Ontong have been such invaluable contributors to the side this season.

There was not a mangle in the Sydney City as it swept forward continually and it seemed only a matter of time before a goal would come.

Boden made a brilliant run along the left and shot across the goalmouth and Scanlon twice had to back-pedal to shove forceful lobbs over the bar, one of them from John Stevenson.

But after absorbing all that pressure, Lions stuck with it and the game swung dramatically when they hit the front with a Hermiston penalty in the 50th minute.

It came shortly after Clarke had tried to save a shot from Alan Niven, and the same player provided a floating cross which sent Verweij away on the right.

He hooked it over with his left leg and as Millman was about to try a header, he was inexplicably flattened from behind by Ian Soussan. There was not a single complaint from Sydney City when referee Allen pointed to the spot.

Lions grabbed the all-important second goal in the 67th minute with a real team effort. Hogg began the attack and Scanlon also became involved before Alan Hughes was sent away on the left.

His cross was perfect and Millman foraged between two defenders to rick his shot past Clarke off the underside of the crossbar.

Sydney City, to its credit, fought back tenaciously but the frustrations of the previous hour introduced a high mistake rate and Lions were able to stifle most of the moves.

City's hopes were raised with four minutes when left back Ian Bruce side-footed in a Mullen cross, but although Lions had to sweat out some anxious moments in the last few minutes of injury time, they hung on well to accept a

MARCONI 4
ST. GEORGE 0

Ground: Marconi Stadium
Crowd: 3652
Referee: Henry Witschge 8
Goals: Krnecvic 2 (28th, 82nd), Byrne 34th (penalty), Jankovic 47th.

Yellow cards: Marconi: Henderson 30th, St. George: Terry 20th, Campbell 37th, Scharfegger 37th, Skoen 79th.

MARCONI: Maher 9, Brogan 7, Henderson 7, Praskalo 7, Tomasch 7, Byrne 7 (Colusso 84th), Raskopoulos 6 (Lindsay 70th), Mariani 6, Sharn 7, Krnecvic 8, Jankovic 7.

ST. GEORGE: Fraser 9, Terry 6, Skean 6, Kay 6, Katholos 6, Cotton 7, Duarte 6, Campbell 7, Hadley 6, Scharfegger 6, Fraser 6 (Boggs 75th).

Despite having four regulars out of their side, Marconi cruised into the Philips Cup semi-final with an easy 4-0 win over a collectively mediocre St. George at Marconi Stadium.

This was the only major Philips match in Sydney last Sunday and yet, the crowd was only a disappointing 3652.

When you compare this with previous cup matches, it seems that the knock-out competition does little to enthrall the Sydney soccer public.

In last Sunday's case it was their loss, for although the game started slowly, we saw four brilliantly taken goals plus chances galore.

The scoreline could have easily induced four other goals had it not been for inspired performances by both keepers.

Marconi really got into gear in the 26th minute with a free kick by Ivo Praskalo. His shot from just outside the area cleared the bar by only inches, but it was all the stimulus that Marconi needed.

A goal came only minutes later from a header by Eddie Krnecvic. It was brilliantly taken from a well-flighted chip into the area by Dragomir Tomasich.

The goal nearly brought the house down as Krnecvic has been going through a scoring drought and everybody in attendance was glad to see it end.

Marconi were quick in the attack again. This time it was engineered by Bertie Mariani.

The move ended with Tony Henderson putting Mark Jankovic into the clear in the area.

Jankovic was chopped down just as he was about to shoot and referee Witschge duly awarded a penalty.

Gary Byrne did the honors and Marconi led 2-0 after 34 minutes.

Tony Henderson nearly added another just before the break when he exploded past three defenders but again, Fraser was equal to the task and Marconi had to be content with a 2-0 lead at half time.

Poor, old St. George were given no respite after the break when in only the 46th minute no less than 4 shots hit everything but the back of the net.

A minute later, Peter Raskopoulos crossed from the left flank for Mark Jankovic to make it 3-0.

St. George showed some real fighting spirit however, and were nearly rewarded in the 52nd minute when Roy Cotton nearly floated a header past Alan Maher, who however kept his goal intact with a brilliant save.

A keeper was again staring five minutes later when Fraser unbelievably stopped a shot from Eddie Krnecvic who was in no mood to be denied, however, and he got his second goal in the 82nd minute. It was again a header, but this time from a Gary Byrne cross.

Apart from seeing four goals scored, the game had some tremendous exhibitions of goal keeping. The most pleasing aspect was the performance of Socceroo Eddie Krnecvic.

It has been a long time since two goals came his way in one match and it should do his confidence the

Belic, Kiri add steel

FOOTSCRAY JUST 1
APIA L'HARDT 0

Scorer: Iliokli 22nd min.
Ground: Olympic Park.
Crowd: About 1000.
Cautions: Kyriakoulas, Vasil (F).
Referee: Tony Beazleigh (Vic) 6.

Vlatko Belic and Kiri Kyriakoulas continued in this match to give the J.U.S.T. team a new dimension: the killer instinct.

That is not intended to be a calous reference to an unfortunate injury sustained by Terry Butler in a heavy collision with Kyriakoulas.

No-one could be sorer after the match than Kyriakoulas, who went to the APJA dressing rooms to pay his respects to Butler and make sure he was alright.

But the fact remains that the physical toughness and sheer determination of Kyriakoulas and attack adds necessary steel to the ball-playing skills of Lujic, Jovanovic, Iliokli, and Plicosea who is yet to return after injury.

Kyriakoulas' task this time was to blot out Phil O'Connor and although O'Connor ran riot early in the game, Kyriakoulas eventually got him under control.

Belic may lack a little speed, experience and finesse, but his sheer relentlessness easily could have been rewarded by a goal or two late in the match when he beat Peter Wilson and Mark Pullen in the air during a devastating period in which he sent a succession of strong headers at goalkeeper Greg Woodhouse.

After a goal being involved in the action which resulted in Zoran Iliokli scoring the winning goal, Belic also worked very hard in coming back when J.U.S.T. lost the ball like Kyriakoulas, Belic is not afraid to go in hard.

Other leading lights in J.U.S.T.'s timely victory — its first in 10 weeks — were Dennis Boland, Zdravko Lukic and Jim Kondaris but it wasn't a match of quality by any means.

Lujic showed the same determination as Belic and Kyriakoulas, and it was this that enabled him to remain the main avenue of J.U.S.T.'s attack despite the close attention of Rod Skellern.

Kondaris came back strongly after a poor game against Marconi, to dominate in the air and hook a Bill Pirie header off the goal line with Boland beaten.

Although Boland lost a few aerial duels, he again demonstrated with some incredible saves that he is the in-form goalkeeper of the Philips League.

APIA's stars were Peter Wilson and Col McAusland. Wilson had the commanding presence one expects from a man who has represented his country more often than anyone else. He rarely was beaten in the middle, he was always there to cut off Lujic if Skellern was passed, and he would have scored with a powerful header which Boland somehow blocked with his legs.

McAusland, who came unheralded from Melta Eagles early in the year, was the busiest midfielder on the ground — always in the action, always looking for the opportunity of a quick pass forward and ready to have a shot when possible.

In fact one of Boland's best flying saves was to stop a snap shot by McAusland after a cross by O'Connor had been repelled by Kondareios in the 17th minute.

Another impressive APIA player was stopper Mark Pullen who has remarkable speed.

Rob Milne fouled Stobodan Jovanovic in the 22nd minute and the free kick, taken by Lujic, led to the winning goal. Lujic slipped the ball to his right, Jovanovic squared it first-time, the defence failed to clear, Belic played it short and Iliokli rammed it high into the net.

The second half opened with Tony Morsello on for John McKie who had done quite well at a cross by O'Connor had been repelled by Kondareios in the 17th minute.

Kondaris saved J.U.S.T.'s bacon by hooking Pirie's header off the line 10 minutes after the break and then Woodhouse managed to get one hand at a close-in shot by Lujic who had come forward on a through ball from Jovanovic.

Jovanovic, who started in an unaccustomed wing position, made a big difference to J.U.S.T. when he returned to midfield in the second half. It was Jovanovic who relayed the ball in most of J.U.S.T.'s breaks.

Woodhouse did well to stop a good shot by Jovanovic and a header by Kondaris, and then he had Belic to contend with as J.U.S.T. got the upper hand.

Morsello could have equalised just before the end when he shot the ball well forward off his line, but Boland pounced on the ball like a tiger and J.U.S.T. had two points which ended its relega-

Newcastle KB United maintained their semi-finals chances with a deserved win over South Melbourne in the deferred fixture last week.

The win allowed United to remain in touch with the top four and if last week's form is any criteria, taking into consideration the fact that all the teams above have to meet Newcastle in the remaining games, then it is mathematically possible for "KB" to make the top four.

Playing the game at their bustling best Newcastle never allowed the slick South Melbourne machine to slip into gear, and although the Victorian side found some room to stroke the ball about in their own third of the ground, the quick closing down of space meant that there just was nowhere to go and seldom the ball reached the three front runners, Katakatis, Cummings, and Buljevic who were held in a vice-like grip by the Newcastle defence.

Once again Phil Dando had a relatively quiet afternoon in the Newcastle United's goal and was only called upon to make some clearances from innocuous long-range shot.

It was one of these shots that brought the Newcastle keeper into action in the 19th minute when George Kristopoulis tried a long, speculative shot against the wind but Dando palmed the ball around the post for a fruitless corner.

It was only two minutes later that Newcastle scored what proved to be the winning goal.

Bill Rogers fouled Paul Burrows about 25 metres out and referee Jim Reeves awarded the free kick.

Former "Socceroo" Col Curran took the kick and unleashed a shot that only comes along once a season for the ball to lodge itself in the top left hand corner of the net giving Peter Laumets no chance.

Curran has scored many similar goals in his long and illustrious career but for sheer power this would rate among the best.

South Melbourne reacted quickly with midfielder George Campbell looking for space for his front runners, but the goal had a good effect on the Newcastle players also, and the old opening that was evident in the first 25 minutes was no longer there.

In fact David Jones almost put the locals two up in the 37th minute when his right foot shot just shaved the upright.

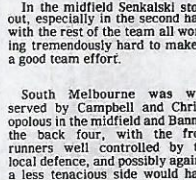

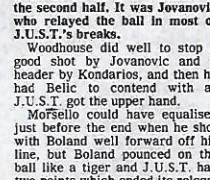

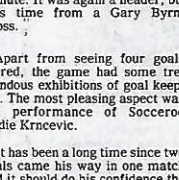

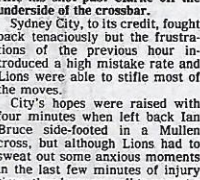

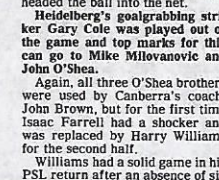

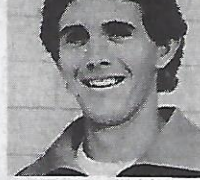

One would have expected South Melbourne to give Newcastle some trouble in the second half, aided by a strong southerly wind, but that was not the case. Their lack of urgency in winning the ball when not in possession allowed the locals to dictate the trend of the game and in situations like these Senkalski always shines with his clever touches and curling passes and his combinations with Paul Reaney who had another solid game, were certainly a feature of the second half.

The closest South Melbourne got to escaping Newcastle's grip was in the 78th minute when a long free kick by Kalafatis (who had replaced Luton two minutes earlier) just skimmed the post.

All Newcastle players performed well, with the back four of Reaney, Sneddon, Drinkwater and Curran absolutely superb.

In the midfield Senkalski stood out, especially in the second half, with the rest of the team all working tremendously hard to make it a good team effort.

South Melbourne were well served by Campbell and Christopoulis in the midfield and Bannan the back four, with the front runners well controlled by the local defence, and possibly against a less tenacious side would have Croatia has to quickly get its act together or it may kiss goodbye to the 1989 State League championship.

A penalty miss by Croatia's Ken Murphy in the 57th minute was the fourth consecutive spot kick that has gone astray for Croatia.

Earlier this year misses in the Ampol Cup and in the State League against Makedonia and Western Suburbs have cost the club dearly when you look at the current three-point gap between Croatia and league leader Makedonia.

Croatia went close to scoring in the third minute against Hakoah but Steve Kokoska just failed to make contact with a Noel Mitten cross after a short corner.

In the 18th minute a half-bit clearance fell to Chris Kent who pushed the ball to Stewart Blair and his fine 22-metre volley went over the bar.

Croatia had its best chance in the 38th minute against Hakoah but Steve Kokoska just failed to make contact with a Noel Mitten cross after a short corner.

Mike O'Hara charged out from goal and seemed to body-check Murphy and the ball ran to Mitten following in but his Wins by Croatia, Croydon and Frankston would strengthen the web woven slowly around four relegation candidates — Slavia, Sunshine, Altona and George Cross.

Slavia's mission impossible — to avoid the drop — will take on an air of credibility if it grabs a point from top-four side Green Gully Ajax on Saturday.

Ajax will go into the game full of confidence but Slavia's back four of Neville Haupt, Steve Lawson, Liam Houston and Dave Byrne are proving no easy barrier to break and Tony Vrzina's persistence in keeping this quartet together is starting to pay dividends in the form of good organisation and quick closing down of opponents.

If Dave Griffiths and Mick McGorian get good service from Cliff Whiteside and John Cullen and score early, don't be surprised to see Vrzina's shutters go up and Cullen moved back to defence to operate as a twin stopper with Houston.

Ajax winger Bill Morrey has the skill and strength to trouble Haupt but the former Chelsea full back has shown that with persistence and endeavour not too much gets past him, so Ajax may look to Dave Perkin to navigate a path through Slavia's defensive barrier on the other side.

Victorian State League with Craig MacKenzie

Frankston City can no longer afford to pay its players on a weekly basis. Its $1000-team now gets "delayed payments".

Frankston coach Nigel Bevis told "Soccer Action" that all players would be paid by the end of the season and he defended the club's struggle to reduce its deficit of last season.

A committee meeting last Wednesday resulted in the resignations of president Hans Gussenhoven and committee member Del Lines. "We made a concerted effort to reduce our debt," said Bevis, "but when the playing side of our finances came into consideration we defended the club's struggle to reduce its deficit of last season."

"Our team has cost us $1000 when you work out the players who have left and those we bought pre-season."

"We are about $70,000 in debt right now, which is not bad when you consider last season's debt topped the $100,000 mark."

"Outside of signing on fees and wages we have done well financially with the players we have."

"We can't pay the players on a week-to-week basis but by the end of the season all players will receive their payments which currently operate on a delayed basis."

"What we need is people able to run a club that is in debt but these sort of people are hard to come by," Bevis added.

The on-field affairs of Frankston are also uncertain, with injuries and suspension plaguing the first team squad.

At Green Gully last Sunday the home supporters displayed a huge banner that slammed Bevis for his pre-match press comments calling Gully "pre-takers".

"I suffered constant verbal abuse culminating in a Gully supporter threatening to knife me, our dug-out had a bucket of cold water thrown over it and was hammered throughout the game and I left the field covered in spit."

"I don't mind a fair scrap but spitting is one of the lowest forms of physical abuse," Bevis ended.

Frankston's fortunes were not aided by the sending off of stopper Danny McCluskey who had been playing well.

Robert Mirak didn't play for George Cross in its 4-1 hammering of Slavia but he was the most important influence in the game!

Put out at the minute Mirak played out due to injury and young Tony Zeigelaar took his place.

Mirak may struggle to displace Zeigelaar this weekend as the youngster Tony Zeigelaar headed down to Ingershup from the left and Zeigelaar rose above Pye on the far post to head firmly into the roof of the net.

Two minutes later Slavia

If Bill Vojtek, Gerry Bennett and Willie Vassallo get on top in the middle of the park it will be a real back-to-the-wall effort if Slavia is to get a result.

Altona coach Joe Wilson must be despairing about working out the intricacies of his side's inconsistency and he well remembers facing Croatia earlier this season and feeling robbed of two points after John Little had missed a penalty late in the game.

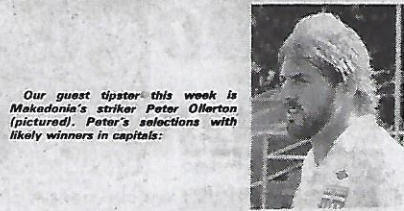

Croatia is somewhat different now, with a tense fight on its hands if it is to win its third successive championship, so Altona had better take no prisoners if it is to get a result.

It will be interesting to see if Peter Lewis and Alan Kerr get a chance to discuss the weather during this game because the result of such a seemingly mild conversation could well be recorded on the Richter scale.

To call them hard is like calling Ayer's Rock a boulder and anyone sitting in front of the grandstand could well have justifiable grounds to sue the VSF for compensation as a result of these two tangling.

Croatia should take both points after a torrid struggle and maintain its title imperious.

In other games Frankston looks too strong for Sunshine, Croydon should account for George Cross and don't be surprised to see Western Suburbs get a result against Hakoah.

Our guest tipster this week is Makedonia's striker Peter Orlerton (pictured). Peter's selections with likely winners in capitals:

Slavia v GREEN GULLY at The Showgrounds, 2.45 pm.
Western Suburbs v HAKOAH at Schindler Reserve, Sunday, 3 pm.
Croydon v George Cross at Croydon Park, Sunday, 3 pm.
Sunshine v Frankston at Chaplin Reserve, Sunday, 3 pm.
CROATIA v Altona at Olympic Park, No. 1, Sunday, 1.30 pm.

Frankston funds low

equalised after Billy Wilkinson had body-checked McGorian and Whiteside's free kick was glanced home by Liam Houston with Cross keeper Robert Amos appearing to react slowly.

Neville Haupt tamed Jim Paparas but Zeigelaar was giving Pye a hiding.

Five minutes before the interval Cowan sent a brilliant ball into the Slavia area where Paparas shielded well, turned and shot.

Elvio Pugliese reacted well, getting a hand to the shot but Zeigelaar was following in and tapped home a simple goal.

Slavia's woes increased in the 55th minute when Tony Castelli controlled well inside the area before crossing waist-high across the face of Slavia's goal and Zeigelaar, again running in, tapped in for his hat-trick.

Slavia maintained its competitiveness but its morale must have been shattered when referee Mellings waved play on after a fierce left-foot drive from John Cullen was palmed into the roof of the net by Amos but strangely bounced out into play to be eventually cleared as Cullen and other Slavia players appealed in vain for what seemed a perfectly legitimate goal.

Cross added insult to injury when a through ball saw Paparas and Haupt race stride for stride as Pugliese came to the edge of his area.

Haupt got a foot to the ball but not hard enough and Paparas squared to Len Pollock who calmly stroked the ball into the empty net.

SUNSHINE: Wood — Dixey, Ellis, R. Nelson, Donaldson — Singleton, Laing, McNally — Pocock (Sbaglia 8th), McRobert, D. Nelson.

Juventus coach Manny Poulikakis lashed out at Juve's attitude toward playing teams low on the ladder after his side's loss to Sunshine.

"We must pay consideration to every team," said Poulikakis, "and I will be taking steps to change this bad habit."

Sunshine coach Jim McIntyre had harsher words for Juventus.

"Juventus must have the slowest back four in the State League," he said, "and although Fabio Incantalupo and Bobby McGuinness are class players, Mendo Ristovski is only a pale shadow of the player I watched at J.U.S.T. a few years ago."

Slavia's woes were hampered by the illness of Frank Muesel, refused unfit due to flu, but its performance left no doubt that Slavia's fellow traveller into Metro Division One will not be decided until the last game of the season.

Playing against the wind in the first half, the Shiners planned to slow things down at the back before playing the ball to their midfielders who would then play wide hoping to catch Juve too far forward.

But it was Juve which had a good chance when McGuinness headed down to Ingershup but the Victorian youth player shot wide.

In the fifth minute Dave Nelson beat Tony Curcio and crossed into the six-yard box

The poor recovery from Suburbs' midfielders found Jaworski and Mike Glykokalamas constantly back-pedalling as Makedonia surged forward.

Makedonia gained more possession in the second half but Suburbs wasted its one clear shot at goal after Tom Patsakos had shot over from a through ball from Steve Carr.

Shortly after Carr he crossed from the right but Lou Kastner was quickly off his line to beat George Theodoridis in the race to the ball.

When Jim Daperis went off injured Robert Cullen fully exploited the inexperience of young Dimovski and twice the Makedonia dynamo took the ball to the line before crossing to find the heads of Ward, for his hat-trick, and George McMillan, who narrowed the gap at the top of the scorers' list and now lies only one goal behind Juve's striker Bobby McGuinness.

Peter Orlerton came on in the 75th minute just to keep in touch for this Sunday's clash against Juventus.

Makedonia ran out an easy winner but bad finishing and bad luck, in the form of Ward hitting the crossbar twice, ruined its chances of amassing a huge score.

ALTONA 2 (Cannell, Gramsbergen) CROYDON 0

CROYDON: Keogh — Brown, Ponghis, McCombe, Murphy — Doornelaan, Smith, Howarth (Wylie 61st) — Brogan, Forsyth, Louw.

Altona was more desperate and first to the ball as Croydon failed to close down its opponents quickly in a drab, unexciting game at Kim Reserve.

Croydon played into the hands of Altona's two central defenders, Kevin Kelly and Rob Gramsbergen, by playing through the middle instead of knocking the ball wide as instructed and trying to get behind Altona's defenders.

Still, the visitors could have opened proceedings in the 20th minute when Peter Loughane crossed low and hard from the right but John Howarth missed a fine opportunity from 10 metres.

FRANKSTON: Whiteside — Panton, Lowe, McCluskey (sent off 85th), Luca — Webb, Cooper, Williamson, Coulson (Campbell half time) — Adams, West.

Green Gully approached this game tentatively due to a sking accident incurred by Lou Denys, a ligament injury to Steve Denne and Gerry Bennett struggling to get fit after a bout of dysentery.

But the motivation that was lacking came in the form of the Press statement of Frankston coach Nigel Bevis.

Gully coach Bobby McLachlan said: "Thanks to Bevis's comments our players were all keyed up for this game and

Crino to mark Cullen, Munro the general

I am confident that we can beat Makedonia on Sunday and I believe that the self-motivation of my players will be a crucial factor.

Really, you don't have to motivate the players for important games such as these because they will rise to the occasion and produce a great performance. I know that Makedonia has a very good defence but they are less impressive up front.

Just look at the statistics and you will see what I mean.

They haven't achieved an average of two goals a game as yet and this doesn't look like the record of a championship side.

To win a championship you want to be looking at almost three goals a game on average.

I know that anyone of their front runners is capable of scoring, so we plan to stop the supply of the ball from midfield.

We will play zonally in midfield because we have put a lot of work into closing opponents down quickly and delaying.

We have the boys who can run for 100 minutes if necessary.

In our defensive third of the field we will use man-to-man marking because any Makedonia player in this area must be closely guarded.

But I am confident about the ability of my defence to cope with Makedonia's attacks.

Frank Munro is the brain behind our defence.

His job is to anticipate dangerous situations and organise our players accordingly.

Now that he is much fitter, I expect him to excel, calling upon all of his undoubted class and experience gained in top soccer overseas.

Tony Curcio has shown me that he can neutralise any dangerous winger and he can have the task of stopping Robert Cullen.

If Peter Ollerton plays up front, he will have his hands full against John Creany.

Creany is strong and tall and he has the ability to stay close to an opponent all day because he disciplines himself so well.

Alex Nelson will play in front of our back four, covering our other three midfielders and allowing them to push forward in support of Bobby McGuinness and Mendo Ristovski.

Bruno Sabidussi is a ball player who has recently improved his work rate by at least 50%.

The same can be said about Tony Heery and Oscar Crino.

Sabidussi is a creative player, in fact, all three of my industrious midfielders are creative and have the ability to finish well.

Heery is the most creative and I will be looking to him to give excellent service to McGuinness and Ristovski.

Crino is a good dribbler because of his fine close ball skills.

When he learns to play the ball earlier, he will be much more effective.

Mendo Ristovski has to improve his work rate up front but he has a fantastic, accurate shot which he must use more often.

And of course we have an outstanding player in Bobby McGuinness.

He is definite PSL material and it is a big bonus to us that he is on our payroll.

He is extremely fast over 10 metres and he can easily beat his opponent.

McGuinness also has the flair for the unpredictable that regularly catches defenders flat-footed.

He takes knock after knock but comes back stronger than ever. This is the type of player I like, someone with so much determination and will to win.

We know that Makedonia is good individually and as a team but Juventus always rises to these special occasions as we proved at Connor Reserve earlier this season.

I have no doubts that my players will again rise to this encounter and produce a performance of which the Juventus spectators can be proud.

I was walking toward the Gillon Oval the other day and an old man, bent and twisted by his 80 years was leaning against the entrance to the oval, softly humming a tune I vaguely remembered hearing on 'The Italian Way' a BBC documentary series.

I walked up to the wizened old creature and, tapping him on the shoulder, asked him where I could find someone connected with Juventus Soccer Club.

"What do you want to know about Juve?" he asked.

"I just want to get some information about the players so I can write my preview for this Sunday's game against Makedonia," I replied.

"Well there's no-one in there who can tell you more than I can," he said, tossing his head in the direction of what I took to be the clubrooms.

I must admit I didn't want to pass up the chance to talk to this wise, old owl because I'm a bit crazy really and I enjoy listening to people talking about clubs that are close to their heart.

I thought to myself what the hell, I can spare a few minutes, so I asked him what he thought about the big game at Olympic Park.

"Listen," he said, "don't be fooled by our position on the ladder, my boy, because I know that we have a great side when the players decide to play."

"What I mean to say is that we can beat anyone on our day and this Sunday is going to be our day, believe you me!"

"But how are you going to stop Robert Cullen?" I asked.

"You are a writer and you don't remember what happened earlier this season?" he asked incredulously.

"We have a boy, Tony Curcio, who can take on anyone and do well, so I don't worry about this Cullen."

"I worry about what will happen in the middle of the field if Claude Lucchesi and Jeff Faulkner play well."

"I know Lucchesi," he continued, "he was once with us and he can play."

"Lucchesi has good skills and he reads play well, so if I were in charge of the team I would be looking for someone to mark him closely all day."

I was becoming genuinely interested in the conversation and I asked the old man what he thought of Juve's defence.

OLYMPIC PARK HOSTS BIG DOUBLE HEADER

This Sunday's double header at Olympic Park between Croatia and Altona at 1.30 pm and Juventus and Makedonia at 3.15 pm offers spectators a chance to focus in on the battle for the 1980 State League championship and top four as well as providing a good indication of Altona's chances of escaping the relegation zone.

Croatia must defeat Altona to maintain its title impetus but Altona is confident that it can carry off a giant killing act and take both points from its more fancied opponent.

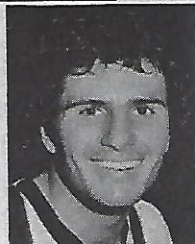

Juventus gets the last chance to show its fans that it is a worthy aspirant for top four honors while Makedonia can see its first ever State League championship looming large.

Is it only faith or does the man know something?

By CRAIG MACKENZIE

Frank Munro

Bruno Sabidussi

"Well, Frank Munro is very experienced and he does not make many mistakes but this new boy, John Creany, is good."

"Creany is tough and strong, just the type of player we need against Makedonia but he will have to be at his best to stop this George McMillan fellow."

"So you see McMillan as a big threat to Juve?" I asked.

"Yes, yes McMillan worries me because he is like a greyhound when he runs and he tackles so hard — very unusual for a top forward," he replied.

"But at the other end of the field we have Bobby McGuinness, the sharpest striker in the State League."

"This little McGuinness is a good player. He is so nippy. He bobs up out of nowhere and bang, a goal, and you wonder how he got there."

"I was not happy with Mendo Ristovski when he first came to Juve but I can see how he is starting to play and he has such a shot that I would not like to be a goalkeeper against him."

"But how do you break down the organisation of the Makedonia defence?" I asked.

"Well, yes, I know that they are very good there and it will not be easy to score."

"This man Gordon Flavell is very underrated as a sweeper and John Higham sticks close to his opponent all day."

"I just hope that McGuinness proves to be too elusive for them but our midfielders will have to help him."

"We can win the ball in the middle, with Alex Nelson, and we have a surprise waiting for them when they step out to play us."

"A surprise?" I asked.

"Well, between you and me, I think that this new boy from Italy will be here in time for the game," he answered.

"I am not too sure but I just think that he might be here although I don't know if he will play," said the old man with a knowing smile.

"Come on," I said, "you know something about this Tiziano Cavallari and you want to keep it to yourself."

"Just let's say that Cavallari could be the other ball winner we are looking for," he said.

"The boy is only in his early twenties and we have paid good money for him so

We're the better footballers

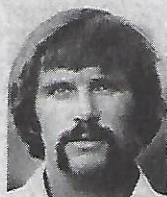

We will beat Altona this Sunday and maintain the pressure upon Makedonia for championship honours.

We will play with three forwards so that we can get more people into scoring situations.

Our record speaks for itself in terms of championships and contrary to what some people think we don't get frustrated, rather, we maintain our patience and play according to pattern.

We seldom give specific marking jobs to our players, preferring to close opponents down as they come.

This will be the case against Altona because there is no point in having more of the ball than your opponents and sacrificing a player as a marker.

We are a better football team than Altona and are more organised.

All that Altona has going for it is effort.

When Carl Gilder and Noel Mitten get into more scoring positions they'll find themselves up near the top of the goalscorers list.

I will be looking to Ken Murphy to get into one-on-one situations wide up front and beating his opponent before crossing or having a go himself.

If we don't beat Altona then we don't deserve to win the league and they had their moment of glory earlier this season when they were given a penalty late in the game and could have beaten us 1-0.

We had something of a skeleton squad at the time but this Sunday we will be at full strength and it will be a different story.

We will continue our drive toward the 1980 State League championship by taking both points from Juventus this Sunday.

I will be telling my players that pride in themselves and in the club is of paramount importance. That will be the motivating factor behind our aim to achieve a first for the club and for most of the players — a league title.

We will mark Bobby McGuinness closely and I think that I will use Ljube Petrovski for the job.

My midfielders will come out on top because they are more skillful and quicker than their opponents and they have tremendous determination.

I have the option of using five players for three or four midfield positions and whichever players get the nod they will do a job for the club and for me.

We will be moving in midfield and probably judge our tactics upon the early development of the game.

In Lou Kastner I have the best keeper in Victoria, if not the best in Australia.

Lou is really dedicated and a marvellous trainer and he'll keep going strong for years to come.

He is the backbone of our defence in every way and I am glad to have him in my side rather than against me.

You couldn't have a better person or a better player than Lou. He has made some brilliant saves this season and brought added stability to our defence.

Ljube Petrovski is playing extremely well at present and he is simply brilliant on his day. Ljube is hard to dislodge when he is in this sort of form.

He psyches himself up before each game and goes onto the field determined to prove himself.

I've got no doubts that on his day he is one of the best players in the State League.

No-one got past him in the game against Croatia two weeks ago and I doubt if any Juventus player is capable of getting past him this Sunday.

Next to Ljube is John Higham, a model of consistency and one of my outstanding players this season.

John is another 100% player who gives his all for the club and his team mates.

His strengths lie in his ability to mark tightly all day and he is very powerful in the air.

Coupled with Gordon Flavelle I have the best central defensive combination in Victoria, PSL clubs included.

I expect that Manny Poulakakis will use Tony Curcio as Robert Cullen's marker but it will be different for Curcio this time.

The wide open spaces of Olympic Park will be exploited to the full and Curcio will find this task extremely hard.

George McMillan and Gary Ward will find space up front and Juventus will pay dearly.

The last time we played them we lapsed in concentration for the last six minutes and they snatched two goals and two points.

Some of our missed scoring chances in that game were incredible but we will rectify the situation this time.

We have the edge in every department — players, motivation, stability and as a team unit — and we are aiming for a goal that the club never has achieved. We are taking each game as it comes and we can see the pot of gold at the end of the season and the title will make all our efforts worthwhile.

Now we face up to Juventus as we close the gap upon our final goal and our path to the title will not be blocked by them.

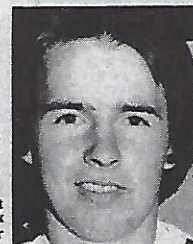

We will knock them out of the way. After all, I think we owe them something for beating us earlier in the season.

Craw, Whyte key men

We are battling at the bottom of the table as we prepare to take on Croatia on Sunday but my lads have always shown me that they can lift themselves against top teams and I expect our performance against Croatia to be no exception.

When Croatia is in possession we probably will play them man to man and Rob Gramsbergen will pick up Carl Gilder.

If he plays we will have to take Tommy Cumming as he comes, just play him tight and not give much away.

I always feel that Cumming is a more dangerous player when he goes deep before picking up the ball and running at opponents.

By Altona

JOE WILSON

When we are in possession we will be looking to catch Croatia on the break as they have a habit of moving up and leaving gaps at the back.

We have to be patient because I feel that the longer the game goes without Croatia scoring, the more frustrated they will become.

On his day Robbie Craw is tremendously skilful and he could give Croatia lots of trouble.

Billy Whyte is strong in the air and a fierce competitor and I will be looking to him to create problems in Croatia's defence.

Overall I hope that the game is entertaining and that we can come out on top.

It's just a matter of disciplining ourselves and producing the play I know that we are capable of.

someone knows that he will not benefit to us.

"If he doesn't play we have Tony Heery and Bruno Abidussi to do the hard work and Oscar Crino is a promising boy with lots of skill."

"The way you're talking you would think that Juventus were on top of the league with an unbeatable record," I said.

"The old man shook his head, seemingly in annoyance, then turned, drawing me to face me about a foot away.

"What do you take me for, fool?" he asked.

"Listen, I know that on he day anything is possible but I have to believe that we can beat them.

"Makedonia's biggest asset is determination but on Sunday you will see a true side just as determined as their opponents.

"And Jack Reilly is starting to play at his best so you have to have faith otherwise there is no point in going to the game.

"I have faith and I will be here to watch us win."

With that comment the old man turned away and walked slowly down the street, leaving me uncertain as to which side I should go or in my preview.

Faith alone can't carry Juventus to victory against Makedonia and when I think back to Peter Ollerton's effort in playing on with a broken jaw in the battle with Croatia two weeks ago I am reminded of Brian Edgley's comments before that important match.

Edgley said Makedonia's determination and will to win would be a crucial factor and his players looked keener than Croatia and worked harder for their result.

I know that Juventus will be no pushover on Sunday but I can't help feeling that Makedonia is tougher and more aggressive and looks to be clicking as a unit — not spectacular but effective.

Edgley will have little trouble in motivating his players for this game and a reminder of their loss to Juve at Connor Reserve

YOUTH REPORT

from COCA-COLA BOTTLERS

English juniors are no better

By LAURIE SCHWAB

The standard of youth players in Australia is as good as anywhere in the world, so we should do well in the Coca-Cola world youth championships next year.

Ian McKie of West Adelaide played junior soccer in England and in his opinion, it wasn't any better than it is here, except for the coaching. "Most of the coaches I had in England were qualified, whereas many of them in Australia are well-meaning parents," he said.

McKie had just returned from hospital when he answered my phone call at his home in the Adelaide suburb of Atholstone.

An apprentice sheet metal worker, McKie had lost the top of one of his fingers in an accident at work.

He is one of four South Australians who were chosen by national coach Rudi Gutendorf for the national under-19 squad after the youth championships in Canberra this year.

The others are David Mitchell and Luciano Signore of Adelaide City and Tony Radford of Para Hills.

McKie thinks Gutendorf will use Steve Blair (South Melbourne), Ian Hunter (Blacktown) and Paul Kay (St. George) as the nucleus of the team for the world championships next year.

McKie isn't far behind those key players.

He was born in Scotland but was only 6 months old when the family moved to England. His father, Ronald, played for County Durham in a moderately successful amateur career, and young Ian played school and club soccer in the Wolverhampton area until they moved to Australia when he was 12.

He was a right winger at first, then a midfielder and now plays for West Adelaide as right back.

Upon arriving in Australia in 1975, Ian joined Salisbury East which was runner-up in the Challenge Cup that year and won the junior second division championship.

Then, he spent a year with Salisbury United before shifting to State League club Enfield Victoria at the age of 16.

Up to this time, he has represented South Australia at under-15, 16 and twice at under-19 levels. He went on to be picked in the senior State squad for games against Vardar and Victoria.

Vince Baston, who was reserves coach at Enfield Victoria and who also coached the State under-15s, took McKie to Enfield as an amateur.

In his first State League season, Enfield came fourth in the league and in his second season the club finished runner-up in the Ampol Cup.

Enfield had a trial match against West Adelaide early this year. West Adelaide coach Gerry Chaldi was so impressed that he asked McKie to come to training. McKie did so and after trialling for three weeks, West Adelaide signed him on a free transfer.

After only two weeks, he was given half a game against Lions in Brisbane and has been a regular ever since — mainly as right back, although he prefers midfield.

Although he is optimistic about Australia's chances in the world championships next year, McKie was disappointed at the standard of play in the national titles in Canberra.

"Some of the games were scrappy, probably because of lack of preparation," he said. "The South Australian team, for example, was together for only six weeks, and even then, most of the Philips League players couldn't get time off to train with the squad."

McKie said NSW was a worthy winner of the championships. NSW beat South Australia in the final.

He is looking forward to the youth squad's trip to Israel for an international tournament late this year, as it will give the players a chance to compare themselves with the best from overseas.

About West Adelaide's relegation worries, McKie said: "I think it's been a matter of finding the right combination of players. In almost every game we've had a different line-up for one reason or another. Against Blacktown City recently, Manecas was at right back — where he played very well — and I was in midfield, for example."

"Also, we haven't taken a single point away from home, which means our confidence is right down when we play interstate."

"I don't know what it is. I suppose we've got some poor travellers in the squad. I'm scared of flying, and so is Graeme Norris, and half the team."

"But at home, we've been beaten only twice. You get plenty of rest when you're playing at home. You don't have the disruption of travelling and you have the home crowd behind you."

"Gerry Chaldi reckons that our poor form away from home is a psychological thing. All we need is to break the ice with one draw, and it will change."

Hensman The Villain

Sydney Olympic striker Peter Hensman was the villain of the day when his missed penalty cost his team a win in its 0-0 draw with Auburn at Pratten Park.

Olympic was awarded the penalty in the 22nd minute when Auburn striker John McCannor handled the ball in his own area after a corner.

Hensman's penalty beat goalkeeper Ron Gisborne but smashed onto the underside of the crossbar and rebounded into the field where it was cleared.

Maestro John conducts the Eagles' play

Johnny "The Maestro" Stoddard has been around.

His great ability has benefitted St George, Canberra City, Sutherlands, and clubs in England and Hong Kong where he played during the off-season together with Doug Utjesenovic.

Now Stoddard orchestrates the midfield of Melita Eagles, the NSW State League club that is making a bid for the championship and for inclusion in the Philips League next season.

"The Maestro" recently was interviewed in Melita's club magazine, "High Flying Eagles."

The interview is reproduced here:

Since you have joined our club, what has been your greatest moment?

The cheer from our supporters when I scored my first goal for the Eagles against Avala.

And your worst?

When Arncliffe Scots defeated us after we had totally dominated the game for 80 minutes.

Are training facilities to your satisfaction?

Melita Eagles coach and former Soccerroo, Attila Abonyi.

Yes, and with our new training ground, and dressing rooms nearing completion, it will be equal to any other club in Sydney.

How do you compare Melita Eagles with the last club you played for?

No comparison whatsoever, as every thing at Melita is geared towards success and not just to survive.

Who do you consider the best team in the competition (apart from Melita Eagles of course)?

Sydney Olympic, with Croatia also in the same bracket.

Who do you think gave you the hardest game this season?

Parramatta City, as their game is based on a 0% skill basis and a 100% physical effort.

How are you treated by your supporters?

In a word "MAGIC". From the kids to the grandpas and grandmams, they make me feel I've been with the club all my life, and without their support, our effort to win this year's championship would be that much harder.

What do you think of Everley Park?

When completed it will be a tremendous Stadium, for spectators and players, and will be the envy of every other club in the League.

Who is the player you fear most in the State Soccer?

No player from any other team, but as my wife can testify, in our training matches, our goalkeeper Terry (Chopper) Greedy, is a force to be reckoned with.

John "The Maestro" Stoddard (left), conducts play as Jim Kondarios of J.U.S.T. sways aside.

Do you see any future in Philips League?

With our new ground, our ambitious Committee, and our tremendous supporters, the future seems to point to us eventually joining the Philips League and with Attila Abonyi, we have the ideal coach to take us there.

What are your immediate personal aspirations in Soccer?

To win the next match. Asked why he is called "The Maestro", he said that it is a nickname given to him by his Maltese fans. "After all we are producing beautiful music together," concluded Johnny Stoddard.

Gully stunned

• CONT. FROM PAGE 7

I spoke to many Frankston players after the match and they agreed that Bevis's comments put them under pressure.

Gully took little time to make his mark and in the eighth minute a Dave Perkin shot was charged down, the ball going to Willie Vassallo who gave Bill Whiteside no chance with a low, left-foot shot from close in.

Frankston stunned the home team's fans with an equaliser in the 48th minute following a long, far post ball from Sean Pardon on the right that was met by Dave Cooper sliding in at full stretch and side-footing past the helpless Denys.

Gully lost its composure after this sudden reply and a 10 minute period ensued in which Frankston came back strongly.

Gully, well marshalled by Jimmy Dunne, resumed control and its pressure was rewarded in the 80th minute from a Bill Morrey free kick after he had been fouled by Kevin Wall tackling back.

Morrey flighted the ball to the far post and when it seemed that it would elude everyone John Patten soared into the air to knock the ball across goal to Dunne who headed home the winner.

It was a particularly satisfying goal for Dunne, his first for Gully, ironically against the club that had the opportunity to sign him but let him slip through its hands.

The washout of my team Wollongong United's game recently allowed me the chance to look at Sydney City and Brisbane Lions at a remarkably dry Sydney Athletic Field.

Playing in Sydney on the same day was South Melbourne, at Lambert Park to play Leichhardt.

I opted for the Athletic Field because I had my wife and three young children with me and the Lambert Park ground offers neither comfort nor cover.

A neat and impressive match program, pleasant, sometimes stirring music via a modern sound system, the reasonable comfort of a modern stand covering a flat, well grassed soccer pitch, all brought about a feeling of excitement and expectation as the two teams warmed up for an important game.

The first half lived up to our expectations, but the second half was dull and anticlimactic as Sydney City used the wind to pump high balls downfield interspersed with high crosses from the wing.

As I mentioned in a previous column, Sydney City under its new coach, Scotsman Eddie Thompson, has changed style fairly drastically this season.

The play is more direct, more often in the air and more aggressive.

Bursts of the neat, short interspersing play developed by Gerry Chaldi occasionally surface, but the players seem to be finding it hard to intermix the two styles and both are breaking down too often for the liking of the success satisfied City supporters.

The philosophy of the team seemed to be evident in the

where speed and competitiveness are big factors.

I like this more dynamic Boden, better than the one paced, moody, magician I have seen at times.

Lions did not have any problems of style.

Under its English born coach, Matt Carson, its play was direct and unfussy, with its quick counter attacks and controlled crosses from the wings causing City the most bother.

I liked very much the skills and energy of striker Millman.

The sign of a good team is one which can play badly, as did Sydney City and still come out with something against a reasonably good team such as Lions which was playing close to its best form.

While City was collecting its valuable point, little challenger Heidelberg was going down by a crazy seven goals against Brisbane City.

Eddie Thompson's team, with the priorities it now has, would never suffer such a fate.

It does, however, seem susceptible to the 0-1, or 1-1 result against inferior opposition because of the schizophrenia in its playing style.

But so are the others, as South Melbourne showed against ARIA Leichhardt, where its grooved-in short passing game came to naught on a sloppy pitch against a determined opponent.

Thompson and his men do look to be well placed to take out City's second Philips league title but, as we all know, "soccer is a funny game", and even Adelaide City must now be cherishing some little hopes.

SCHIZOPHRENC SYDNEY CITY

way it defended at corners with 11 men back, and attacked at corners with five men positively forward.

Coach Thompson has talked in the press about percentage soccer and this would appear to color some of his pre-match thinking.

The team is stacked with good players.

Every player, apart from striker Irenter, is a national representative at one level or another.

Although the new style does seem to please the City supporters as much as did the silky smoothness of the 1977-79 vintage, it has produced enough consistency to put the "Slickers" on top of the league and it is hard to argue with that.

Ken Boden looked quite dynamic at times against Lions.

This is the first time I have seen him display such acceleration and determination, a lack of which I had previously considered was the reason he had not made it in England,

Denton hits three

*Tasmanian report
by Reg Tolpitt and David Martin*

Croatia, the only team left with a chance of challenging Rapid, for the Radio Rentals State League, lost a vital game 3-1 to Launceston Juventus. This has given Rapid a three-point lead and a goal difference of 30.

Croatia were a goal down after five minutes due to a defensive lapse and 0-2 at half time. In the second half they scored to make it 1-2 but Juventus scored a third right on time.

Devonport were defeated at home for the second time when Hobart Juventus won 4-2. Eric Young and Parodi scored two each, Devonport's coming from Rimmer and Stones.

The battle for relegation heated up when both Ulverston and White Eagles drew their respective games.

At Burnie, Ulverston surprised even themselves with a magnificent 4-4 draw and this was despite Mike Denton playing for Burnie and scoring a hat-trick.

Georgetown, having won 7-1 the week before, could only draw against improving White Eagles. They were soon two goals down but just on half time Djajic pulled one back and in the second half Schiebel scored and then put Georgetown ahead from a penalty only for Sherman to equalise for 3-3.

In Rothmans Div. 1 South Hobart lost their unbeaten record, going down to University 1-2 after a lacklustre game. South only needed three points from three games and looked certain to win the league but have now put themselves under pressure.

Metro beat Eastern Suburbs 5-1 while Phoenix returned to their winning streak by defeating Dnipro 3-1.

Olympia remain in second place and closed the gap on South Hobart by defeating Tarra 5-0.

En un partido vibrante donde se entregaron los 90 minutos LOS CHARRUAS ganan no solo mercedamente, sino de jando la sensación de espas a recorrer el camino de calidad que el futbol español tiene, BELLEZA Y CORAJE.

BURNLEY S.C.: BUDIA-LETRAN, MONTES-VALLE, JOS-PIÑAS-GUTIERREZ-LEON-SAN PIETRALUNGA-P-CALLE-GIL.

Cambio: Segundo tiempo, J. CALLE por SAN-ORTIZ por PIÑAS (lesionado).

Selección: 9' del segundo tiempo FRANK "PIÑA" CALLE en jugada personal.

28', en desesperada jugada el portero del PASCOE VALE, fuera del área rechaza de cabeza un balón que va a los pies de PIETRALUNGA, levanta la cabeza, "side" y por elevación la pelota en la portería. Inteligencia y guiso.

El PASCOE VALE es el último de la tabla y esta condenado pero, a no engañarse, es un equipo DIFÍCIL y MUY DURO.

Luego de un primer tiempo, de neto dominio de LOS CHARRUAS, donde el poste dos veces dice no a la gran actuación del portero jugoculavo impiden la conquista.

Llega el segundo tiempo, don de los españoles jugando al futbol ordenadamente y sin desesperarse llegan a conocer, periferencias por lo menos TRES GOLES MAS. Una actuación sensacional de JOSE "CHE" MONTES, AGUSTIN "GAS" LEON y MANOLIN LETRAN. La entrada del "GUERRILLERO" ORTIZ desmelo y frustró el esfuerzo de los locales cuanto estaba a 1-0. Gran partido de "MONTES" VALLE y el puntero PIETRALUNGA. En líneas generales el equipo funciona bien y mucho que no se va muy cerca de cumplir una segunda rueda que sorprenderá a muchos, Valeros jóvenes y muchas ganas de ganar.

Por medidas disciplinarias UN PARTIDO PARA LA T.V.!!!!

En un partido de mucho nervio donde la levantada del BANKSIA, complico a los GAUCHOS en el segundo tiempo, los dos puntos valen para seguir aspirando a una punta, que esta cerca, y a un campeonato que empieza a tener color "CELES TE Y BLANCO".

WEST MELBOURNE: CISTERNA-AREBOLA-SUA-REZ-MOTANO-CALOMINO-SILVA (PA CHECO)-HUIZ-REPOSOS-GARCIA-DITTO (SABO)-HINWORTH.

A poco de comenzar las esperanzas de los argentinos se concretaron en un golazo de GROOVY "DITTO" que dio tranquilidad y mejor accionar a el mejor equipo en el campo. No es facil jugarle a equipo que como el BANKSIA esta "de desesperado" tratando de elejarse del fantasma del DES-CHESO. Ellos salen a matar o morir, y los GAUCHOS en cada punto se estan jugando el campeonato. Gran partido de MIGUEL "CHARRUA" SUAREZ, ALAN "MALVITAS" HINWORTH y de la sociedad GARCIA-DITTO. Es el CHECO "GARCIA" el que pone el definitivo 2, para los argentinos. El BANKSIA, de penal logra su gol, y el resto del segundo tiempo, fue el clasico forcejeo del partido sin mucha tecnica, en que el conjunto que "sabe menos" de desesperado quiere empatar. La experiencia y la seriedad de LOS GAUCHOS pudo mas.

BIOLANDOVA POBEDA

Prvih 15 minuta, kod J.U.S.T. nije sredio svoje redove. LEICHHARDT je mogao isko do postigne nekoliko golova da nije bilo Bolandova. Uvijek hrabri i vecito mirni golman, koga niko ne uzima u bilo kakvu kombinaciju, nema prave konkurencije u Phillips lig. South Melbourne kao staro gorodsko, zabavlja se kao Feniks. I od tada se na prate mogu izbrojati utakmice, na kojima nije bilo nadju najboljima, ako ne najbolji.

Ova J.U.S.T.-ova pobeda je bila presudna, jer od Western Ovala "plavci" nisu dobili ni jednu utakmicu. U Melbourne nisu igrali odavno ni nereseno. To je uticalo na moral svih igrača. Da ne spominjemo ceste povrede, koje su uticale na "plavce", koji je na početku sezone covekalo zlatno bodove, od kojih J.U.S.T. jos uvijek placu redovno stanarima Phillips lig. Pre nego sto se ta galija istrosila J.U.S.T. je dopunio predeljenje sa dva vena boda, koje mnogo znace. Vratila su poljudnici morali igračima. Otkopali su majstor na zmetu, dok su svi ostali horci i naborci. Dva mlada igrača Cazzella i Bello koje su radili da paku znanu u drugoj diviziji. Bilo bi mnogo bolje za njih i drugi tim "plavci", koji se aspiro na niste grade.

Detanje neobjasnjenje zbog cega se Milivo toliko zagrjevalo kada je ostao na rezervnoj klupi?

Iduce nedelje J.U.S.T. igra u Newcastleu, koji je zabavljao zracnjaku pobedu nad South Melbourne Hallstom, sto nista ne znaci za J.U.S.T., koji uviek igra mnogo bolje van Melbourne. Za ta utakmicu kao vjerovatno biti zdrav Josip Pliconec i Mirko Rajcic, cije iskustvo i znanje vrste zlati.

MAKEDONJIA BEZ KONKURENCIJE

Pobeda nad Crostijom dala je Makedonjici krila. Pobeda od 4-0 nad Western Suburbom utopila je vasa i znanjacija sto je Croatia izgubila jos jedan vazan bod sa Hekohom. Radika od tri boda je prilikom valika, koje je zadnjih godina bilo vasa, pa se tek ispostavlja. Srednj prvog puta, Makedonija se vasa suzuce sa Crostijom u zavrsnici prvenstva, sto je bilo valjko palibicko opterecenje. Sada je sav svet na Crostiji, koji je izgubila ovog najboljeg igrača Tommy Cummings kada joj je najvise bio potreban. Onda kada nekog vremena najbolja mora da iscani toliko vred. Takav je slučaj Cummings, koji je strva "nejaduradnik" utakmica, od kojih klub gotovo nista nema, cak ni zalvost, da ne spominjemo materijalnu nadoknadu. Novac je izgleda samo privilegija savasa.

TOSTALE UTAKMICE

ALTONA GATE — RICHMOND 1:0 (1:0). Teška, ali zasluzena pobeda postignuta je sa 10 igrača, jer je sudija zbog obnog vala isključio Jimmy Devlaravskog u 42. minutu. Pre toga je Sekula Sekulovski postigao gol, koji je donio boljan tim dva boda. Iste nedelje igraju i dva tima, Jedino sa vasa se Vlado Kotarac i Kira Veljanovski nali sami pred golmanom. Znacajan uspeh je postigla rezerva Altona Gate, koje je u Armstrong Kupu pobedila Sunshine City sa 2:0.

J.U.S.T. — WAVERLEY 1:2 (1:0). Ponovo su ziveli odmorci. "Plavci" su aspijili sa ovim protivnikom savas niski, ali nikad ne trahu gubiti nade, jer sportista znaju da imaju ovak da se vredi. Ali ne treba calati na nje aspijenti ruku, kao sto to radi nekoliko igrača, vasa se treba boriti i igrati u igri. Lopo kase polovica: "Pomoci se sam, pa ce ti Bog pomoci!" J.U.S.T. je lepo povero sa 1:0 preko Pavle Simica. Mogao je biti postignu i dva gola preko Kotarac i Simica, ali su obolila iz neposredne blizine mlako autisti pravo u golman. Posle odmore izmedju stavila je bio nekakvi Smici, koji je lako primio dva gola. Ali vasa krivicu isam desni bok, koji je bio vasa turista nepo odbranjeni igrač. Mladi golman Alex Vidic je zbog bolova u leđima bio zamenjen za vreme odmore. Dobro svet je povratnik Milutina Cirica, a i Misa Ilic bi mogao vasa da se zalazi za svoj tim. Rezerva je isto tako nereseno izgubila sa 1:2 (2:1), autogolom Enila Petrova. Strac jednog gola bio je Dusko Atanasovski, koji je igrao povraden.

CARLTON/SRIJLA — BALLARAT 1:2 (0:2). Prvi poraz u sezoni piod je neozbiljne igre i ubrzanosti nekih igrača, koji su zaboravili da je lopta okrugla i vragolasta stvar, koja zna da se naruja u najboljem timu. Ballarat, koji tavari na dva tabele, poceo je ozbiljno i borbeno iva utakmicu. Carlton/Srijla se trpila kada su gosti povali sa 2:0. Bilo je dokidan. Jedino Drago Vujic postigao jedan gol u 75. minutu, sto je donelo ublažio poraz. Medjutim, poraz poraz, Srbija je sigurno druga u drugoj provizioniranoj ligi, sto otvara vrata stajlog narađe iduce godine. Rezerve su igrala nereseno 1:1 (0:1). Strac Ed Sadikovic u 59. minutu.

HAWEESBURN — KARINGAL 1:2 (0:1). Zasluzljivoj golmanu Antel Meziu, koji je kod stanja 0:2 odbranio jedanaesterac, Hawkakum je prebolio krizu i povratio moral, inace bi doživao katastrofu. Poraz Oskaskovic je u 75. minutu smanjio na 2:1.

SEAFOUD UTD. — PARKMORE/PLAVI DUNAV 1:5 (0:1). "Plavi Dunay" je nadigras protivnika u oba poluvremena, ali je tak posle odmore svoj nadmoćnost izrazio golovima. Strac: Josi Biro 2, Janos Savi, Mihali Djermati i Ferenc Biot po jedan. Najbolji igrač: Karoli Erdel, Josi Biro i Mihali Djermati. Rezerve su igrala nereseno 2:2 (2:1). Strac: Josi Plavi Dunay: Antal Ambrus i Mihali Djermati.

FOOTSCRAY UTD./VARDAR — PARKMORE/HAJDUK 1:0 (1:0). Gol, koji je postigao Aleksander Strbinovski u prvom minutu, odlicio je pobednika od pred utakmice dva nasa kluba. Vardar se ravnalo za poraz na početku sezone, jer je uspeo da privlas desnu stranu. Hajduka, bivsa Stavlisa i Zvonka Macanovica. Junak utakmice je bio golman Vardara Miro Ivanovski, koji je odbranio jedanaesterac u 30. minutu, koji je izveo M. Sembrer jakim udarcem u desnu stranu Vardarova mreze. Kole ga je posticao, kaclo se kao pater i latio loptu u kornar.

TARAX — T.A.A. 5:0 (2:0). Specijalisti za Black Douglas Kup postigli jos jednu uspešnu pobedu na putu prema finalu ovog takmičenja. T.A.A. je startovao vasa dobro, ali "plavci" nisu dozvolili da se protivnik vasa u nabo, vasa se ga prilikom za zanjaju, gde se "avljatari" osacaju kao ribe na suvom. Odbrana Tarax prvi put nije primila jetini gol. Sredina je malo hematila, jer je Frank Hecle izveo delatnastu tvrdicu i otriso na vasa. Zato je bilo Hecle zabladi bio u sredinu. Radio je sta je htio, pripremio desetak senai, od kojih su 4 iskoristene, a vasa je po jedanaest pogodilo jedan i istu. Golova su postigli: Thorin Bilicki 2, Slobodan Lukic, Steven Kovacevic i Ivo Hecle. Iduce nedelje je na "Starakani" igraju Tarax i Boosch.
